OF THE

CONFEDERATE DEAD,

INTERRED IN

Hollywood Cemetery,

RICHMOND, VA.

RICHMOND:
Gary, Clemmitt & Jones, Printers.
1869.

“ They fell devoted, but undying ;
“ The very gale their names seems sighing ;
“ The waters murmur of their name ;
“ The woods are peopled with their fame ;
“ The silent granite, lone and gray,
“ Claims kindred with their sacred clay ;
“ Their spirits wrap the dusky mountain,
“ Their memory sparkles o’er the fountain :
“ The meanest rill, the mightiest river,
“ Rolls mingling with their fame forever :
“ Despite of every yoke she bears,
“ The land is glory’s still and theirs.”

PREFACE.

The organization of the HOLLYWOOD MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION was for the purpose of localizing the graves and registering the names of the Confederate dead, interred in Hollywood Cemetery, as well as for the erection of a suitable memorial structure.

In presenting the results of their labors, the ladies of the Association regret that their means have enforced the accomplishment of what was possible, rather than what the sacred dignity of their task demands.

It is proper to state, briefly, what has been done and what is in progress. For the identification of sections and graves, granite blocks with deeply cut letters have been erected at the corners and along the sides of each section, and every grave has been marked by a locust or heart cedar stake, of good size, bearing a tinned-copper number plate. The sections have been levelled, and are well set in grass. Carriage ways and footpaths have been graded, gravelled and well rolled; while granite gutters laid along their sides protect them from washing. A large number of ornamental trees, shrubs and flowers have been planted. The 31st of May, or as near that day as possible, has been dedicated, since the organization of the Association, to the distribution of floral offerings upon the graves of the Confederate dead within the bounds of Hollywood cemetery.

The Memorial Granite Pile—pyramidal in form, forty-five feet square at base and ninety feet high, containing blocks with appropriate inscriptions—is in process of erection. This structure, clad with vines and roses, will mark for ages the last resting place of those whose unfaltering devotion it commemorates—an enduring tribute to heroic virtue, cemented by the ties of sympathy and love.

EXPLANATORY.

The detached position of Section X—it being in Hollywood proper, West of the South entrance gate—prevents its being shown upon the Map.

Where graves have Marble Slabs, it is indicated by the letters M. S. in the column of remarks.

Amid the confusion incident to the time when the Confederate dead were buried, and their names recorded, errors in spelling and in assignments to their respective Companies, Regiments or States, may have arisen; the Register is presented, therefore, as simply a careful and laborious compilation from all the sources of information available, with such accuracy in detail as circumstances rendered it possible to secure.
